

COSTUME DANCE IS UNIQUE AFFAIR; WORK OF EL PASO MUSICIANS TONIGHT

THE program of original musical compositions will be given by the music department of the Woman's club this evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the high school. Mrs. Clarence Johnson is the chairman in charge of the program. All of the musical numbers are the compositions of El Paso people and many of them will be played by the composers.

Opening the program will be "Spring Song," the words and music by Miss Annie Stolaroff. Miss Della Rosenstein will sing this and Miss Stolaroff will play her accompaniment.

"Oh Love of Mine" and "A Plea for the Flowers," two songs, with the words and music by Miss Elizabeth Garrett, will be sung by Mrs. Fred C. Emery, with Miss Lillian Lockwood playing the accompaniment.

An anthem, from one of the psalms, "Oh Give Unto the Lord," with the musical setting composed by Miss Elizabeth Garrett, will be sung by Mrs. W. D. Howe, with Mrs. J. J. Pearce accompanying her. George Howell will recite Tennyson's poem, "Break, Break, Break," playing a musical accompaniment to this of his own composition. The piano solo that he has composed, "Tugboat," and "Dance."

Mrs. E. P. Merson will play "Gipsy Dances," a composition arranged with a violin obligato. The piano part is her composition, and she will play it. The violin obligato was composed by Mrs. Ralph Henderson and she will play it.

Mrs. J. S. Daugherty will sing "Sweethearts," the music composed by F. R. Koch and played by him. Later in the program several other compositions by Mr. Koch will be played. These are "Barcarole," which is a duet for violin and piano and will be played by Miss Mary Powers and Russell Koch, and "Willow," with the flute obligato composed by F. R. Koch and the piano part by Ava Dell Acqua.

Mrs. J. S. Daugherty will sing this and S. Souffice will play the flute obligato.

A reverie for the violin "Reflections," composed by Mrs. Lillian Hogue Corcoran, will be played by Mrs. R. M. Henderson, with Mrs. Corcoran playing the piano part.

A piano solo, "The Voice of the Desert," dedicated to the "White Sands," from a group of Cloudcroft compositions, will be played by the composer, F. R. Koch.

"Romance," composed by Mrs. J. J. Pearce will be played by Mrs. Pearce, with Mrs. D. V. Fennessy playing the violin part.

A lullaby, "Coo Baby Song," with the words and music composed by Mrs. Lillian Hogue Corcoran, will be sung by Mrs. W. D. Howe, accompanied by Mrs. Corcoran.

H. E. Vansurdam's song, "Rememberance," will be sung by Harry Rosenstein, with Miss Annie Stolaroff playing his piano accompaniment.

A. F. Sievers will play a group of his own compositions. These comprise four preludes, a dance, a waltz for the left hand alone and "Fairly Tale."

The closing number of the program will be a chorus written for graduating class of the high school pupils in 1914 by F. R. Koch with the words by Mrs. S. J. Fennell. The solo part will be sung by Mrs. W. D. Howe, who also sang it at the time it was written.

The duet occurring in this chorus will be sung by Mrs. Howe and Mrs. H. M. Henderson. The members of the chorus singing this will be Mesdames W. R. Schutt, Henry Clay Greer, J. J. Wyndall, R. P. Merson, D. C. Booth, Paul Heermann, Frank Fenille, Jr., H. M. Hazard, A. DeFew, Misses Anne Lee Ris, Lora Alkin and Ella Peck. Mrs. Ralph M. Henderson will direct and F. R. Koch will play the accompaniment. The concert is open to the public without an admission charge.

El Pasosans Returning.

Mrs. R. L. Slaughter, sr., who has been visiting in Dallas and other east Texas points, will return this week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marchison returned Saturday from Los Angeles, Cal., where they spent their honeymoon.
